

Support Worker

Vacancy in Birmingham based within a clients own home. Duties include providing housing related support to service users with learning difficulties, challenging behaviour, mental health, autism and forensic backgrounds. You will be required to assist with daily living skills, accessing the community, personal care and providing physical/mental guidance. You will be responsible for ensuring all paperwork is completed in line with CQC and company guidelines. Experience in a similar role is desirable; an NVQ in health and social care or equivalent is preferred. Various shift patterns to include 7am – 3pm, 3pm – 10pm, sleep in shifts and Waking Nights, applicants must be flexible with their availability. Successful applicants are required to provide an enhanced disclosure. Expense to be met by applicant. Salary is £6.08-£7.50 per hour depending on qualifications and experience. All training is provided. If you have not received a response to your application within 10 working days then unfortunately your application has been unsuccessful.