

Sign Language Support Worker

Based in Birmingham within a clients own home. Duties include providing housing related support to a service user with a learning disability, mild autism and whom is deaf. You will be required to assist with daily living skills and accessing the community. You will be responsible for ensuring all paperwork is completed in line with company guidelines. Experience in a similar role is desirable; an NVQ in health and social care or equivalent is preferred, an NVQ2 in British Sign Language is essential. Various shift patterns to include mornings, afternoons, evenings and nights, applicants must be flexible with their availability. Successful applicants are required to provide an enhanced disclosure. Expense to be met by applicant. Salary is £6.08- £7.50 per hour depending on qualifications and experience. All training is provided. If you have not received a response to your application within 10 working days then unfortunately your application has been unsuccessful.